

Carbonwood Bike

Gary Galego's Carbonwood Bike brings together sustainability and fine craftsmanship. The plywood laminations that make up the structure of the bike are material composites of wood and carbon fibre. Wood is accustomed to enduring harsh conditions and is often stronger than steel and aluminium. The wood for the Carbonwood bike is from sustainably harvested trees and the veneers are rotary cut, resulting in no waste.

